Dear Valuable Customers,

If you believe that unique & customised brand name products would bring more success to your business, choosing the right manufacturer is the most important issue among all.

For sure, NGAI TAM would be as good as your own factory.

In order to facilitate better control over the cost, quality, delivery time and information security, we operate our headquarter in HK and factory in Shantou, China, where all critical parts and finished products are produced. Our leakage-proof measure also add maximum security for the patent or copyright design from our customers against information leakage.

Our current lines of production include "sealing wax", "ceramic", "metalware", "wooden products", "leatherware", "glassware" and "custom-designed packing box". Hence, should you have any special ideas in widening your market or find that your profit margin is getting narrower due to the high charges paid to your present supplier, please do not hesitate to send the relevant design and even your target price to us. We would try our best to work out a proposal to meet your need.

Combining human ingenuity and elegance, traditional culture and innovation design, our products will help you to capture greater market share more easily. It is always our policy to insist on using the finest material and the best workmanship in the production process which adds invaluable quality to your product for winning the confidence of your buyers from all over the world. Moreover, excellent after-sale service would enhance your market competitiveness. Terming-up with us will provide yourself the best logistic support in dealing with your customers.

We deeply believe that your valuable comment, either positive or negative, could help us to make further improvement & produce better products to suit the market need from time to time. We take great pleasure to accept the opinion from you and will try our best to cope with your demand.

Anyhow, we do hope that we would have the opportunity to co-operate with you and engage in long-term business relationship with each other.

Please feel free to let us know if you have any queries. We pledge to provide you all our best service and be your most reliable strategic business partner all the time.

Wishing you and your company ever success in the future

Yours truly,

Ngai Tam Giftware Co.
